Chinese!

Look for “Qingdao” – a city on the north China coast

Shanghai means “on the sea”

Qingdao is on the sea!

Three weeks in Qingdao!

A counterpoint to Shanghai

This manageable and accessible city gives you a more three-dimensional view of the realities of contemporary China.

Diverse experience

North China (Shandong Peninsula) is a different world from South China (lower Yangzi estuary).

A Chinese City Built around Imperial German Architecture!

History that lives today:

- 1) Architectural & Cultural: Imperial German occupation; brewery
- 2) Shandong Province: cradle of the Boxer uprising; twice occupied by the Japanese
- 3) Qingdao was Chiang Kai-shek's last stop en route to Taiwan

Current events:

- 4) Qingdao currently part of the China-South Korea-Japan economic nexus
- 5) Other issues China is dealing with such as the environment and industry
