

Apply online now, deadline Feb 15, 2012!

www.modlangs.gatech.edu/lbat/jordan

Program Highlights:

- 4 weeks of intensive Arabic language courses. June 15 – July 13
- 2 level options:
 - Intermediate, prerequisite ARBC 1002 or equivalent
 - Advanced, prerequisite ARBC 2002 or equivalent
- Earn 6 credit hours:
 - ARBC 2691 Intensive Intermediate Arabic and ARBC 2692 Conversational Arabic for Business
 - ARBC 3691 Intensive Advanced Arabic and ARBC 3692 Conversational Arabic for Business
- Live with a Jordanian host family to learn about Jordanian daily life activities, habits, customs, current issues and values of contemporary Arabic culture
- Experience culture and history through cultural and business excursions, interacting with Jordanians, exploring the cities and the outdoors

For more information, visit: www.modlangs.gatech.edu/lbat/jordan

Or contact program director Ragheda Nassereddine at ragheda.eddine@modlangs.gatech.edu

Apply online now, deadline Feb 15, 2012!
www.oie.gatech.edu/sa/basics/procedure.php

For Non-GT (Transient/Special) students, please go to www.oie.gatech.edu/transient to apply. The deadline is February 15th

Program Fees and Tuition:

- Non-refundable application fee: $200
- Program fee: $4,180 (includes host institution fees, housing, airport pickup and drop-off, most meals, ground transportation, excursions, health insurance, cultural events) Program fee does not include airfare, tuition and application fee.
- Tuition is for 6 credit hours. Out of state students pay in-state tuition and fees plus $250.
- First Payment: $2000 due February 15 ,2012
- Second Payment: $2180 due March 15 ,2012

Scholarships:

- Project Go: ROTC students from Georgia Tech and other participating universities are eligible for a special full scholarship to study abroad in Jordan and Arabic-speaking countries. This scholarship applies to the LBAT program
- HOPE scholarship is applicable to LBAT tuition
- The Modern Languages' Campoamor scholarship (appr. $400); please see Modern Languages website under "student resources"
- Program Scholarship: Six $1000 Scholarships are awarded on a first-come basis to qualified students. Check the LBAT Jordan site at www.modlangs.gatech.edu/lbat/jordan
- More scholarships available at Office of International Education website

For more information, visit: www.modlangs.gatech.edu/lbat/jordan

Or contact program director Ragheda Nassereddine at ragheda.eddine@modlangs.gatech.edu

Apply online now, deadline Feb 15, 2012!
www.oie.gatech.edu/sa/basics/procedure.php

For Non-GT (Transient/Special) students, please go to www.oie.gatech.edu/transient to apply. The deadline is February 15th